

2024-2025 ACADEMIC YEAR STRATEGIC GOALS OF THE NUTRITION AND DIETETICS DEPARTMENT

1. Produce at least 2 new research projects annually by 2026.
2. Increase the number of international and national scientific activities by faculty members.
3. Increase the number of publications indexed in international databases.
4. Increase citations to publications indexed in international databases by 3% by 2026.
5. Organize at least 2 social events among faculty members annually by 2026.
6. Organize at least 1 activity annually to promote the department.
7. Hold at least 1 scientific event annually within the framework of the continuous education program in health by 2026.
8. Provide consultancy services to institutions and organizations related to education and health services.
9. Successfully complete the accreditation processes of ongoing education programs.
10. Offer necessary training opportunities (computer skills, foreign language, communication skills, stress management, etc.) at least once a year by engaging with internal stakeholders for staff in need.