THE IMPACT RANKINGS

OPEN ACCESS

University sports team tryouts

Open tryouts at CIU Arena for students and the wider community.

Tryouts and open access

To foster athletic participation and talent development, CIU regularly organizes open tryouts for a wide range of sports branches, including basketball, volleyball, swimming, handball, tennis and athletics. These sessions, hosted at the CIU Arena, encourage both registered students and the wider community to engage in active, healthy lifestyles through competitive and recreational sports.

Official match schedule and group list, Handball Championship.

Collaboration with national sports governing bodies

CIU actively collaborates with national sports governing bodies, such as the University Sports Federation of Northern Cyprus (NCUSF), by making its state-of-the-art sports facilities available for regional tournaments and inter-university championships.

CIU Arena serves as an official host venue for multi-university events, including the 24th University Sports Games Handball Championship. By opening its facilities (such as indoor arenas, fields and courts) to participating teams, officials and spectators from other educational institutions and the wider community, CIU demonstrates its active role in promoting regional sports participation, physical health and community engagement.
